

Consultation: Life Care Plan

Critique a prepared life care plan and/or conduct a preliminary needs assessment. Services typically include, but may not be limited to, a review of pertinent medical records upon which the life care plan/needs assessment has been founded. Research includes careful examination of current and future needs with associated costs over the projected life expectancy. Findings and opinions are delivered orally.